About BAHT

The British Association of Hand Therapy (BAHT) is a registered charity whose aim is to advance and promote the study and general knowledge of the treatment of the hand. We encourage high standards of care, education and research in the field of hand rehabilitation. The membership of the organisation is from both occupational and physiotherapists who have a particular interest in hand rehabilitation.

BAHT offer a number of awards and bursary schemes for members to encourage travel and research in the field of hand management and rehabilitation.

Our Membership

We have 650+ members in the UK, working both in the NHS and the private sector.

Our members are both Physiotherapists and Occupational Therapists, with a specialist interest in Hand Therapy.

We also have many therapists who are part or full time educators and researchers.

We have Overseas Membership as well as associate membership for students, OT/PT assistants and technicians.

BAHT Website

Our website adverts are accessible to anyone viewing the website and are not exclusively for members.

We have specific pages for job vacancies, courses and research which all have clear links from our homepage: <http://www.hand-therapy.co.uk/>

When you place an advert of the BAHT website it will also have a link in the latest news section of home page which makes your advert more accessible to all website viewers.

We also offer an annual corporate advertising subscription on the website which includes space for your logo, text & link to your website.

BAHT E-bulletin

The BAHT e-bulletin is sent electronically to all its members across U.K. It is a quarterly publication providing members with updates on BAHT activities and important national and international events in the field of hand therapy, including conferences and courses.

It is an excellent way to access members. It has a noticeboard section where you can advertise and provide a direct link to your website or to your advert on the BAHT website. It also has a premium advertising space which includes a colour picture for corporate advertisements, recruitment advertisements or for you to promote your course and conference.

E-Bulletins are sent out in March, June, September and December. There is also an additional special edition for the BAHT Annual Conference.

Special e-bulletins are also available on request. BAHT reserve the right to review and negotiate content.
